

Dear Policyholder:

A new federal law requires us, as your residential property insurer, to provide you with a copy of our Privacy Policy. We are glad to have this opportunity to do so and to communicate to you our commitment to guard against inappropriate disclosure of nonpublic personal information.

Our Privacy Policy

We collect and use information necessary to administer your policy and provide you with efficient customer service. We collect and maintain several types of information needed for these purposes, such as those below:

- Information provided by you on your application for insurance coverage, such as your name, address, telephone number, age of your home, and type of construction.
- Information gathered from you as our insured, such as how long you've been our insured, your payment history, what kind of coverage you have, underwriting information and claims information.

Limited Disclosure

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about you or any of our policyholders to anyone except as permitted by law.

Protecting Confidentiality

When we share nonpublic personal information about you, as permitted by law, we protect that personal information with a confidentiality agreement that obligates the recipient of the information to keep it confidential.
